CLUB NOTES

First of all may we take this opportunity of wishing all our players, members, and supporters a Happy New Year.

We have enjoyed some splendid football at the Athletic Ground in the past ten years and we are sure that London Scottish will maintain their position among the leading clubs into the seventies.

We must congratulate Sandy Hinshelwood and Alastair Biggar on being selected for Scotland's match against France next Saturday. Our congratulations, too, to our full-back Ian Smith and we hope that he comes up with the goods as he did against the South Africans last month.

A warm welcome to Gloucester, our visitors today who are traditionally top rate opposition. They will include four of their players who appeared for Western Counties against the South Africans on Wednesday. One of them is the former Blackheath player Phil Hayward, who has been an England trialist this season.
