PROGRAMME NOTES

TUESDAY, MAR. 31ST 1970

The meetings between Stroud and Gloucester are eagerly looked forward to and that is one of the reasons why we are hoping for a good crowd tonight.

Stroud will be all out to avenge a defeat at Kingsholm in October by 49 pts. to 14 and particularly in view of their recent improved form, are quietly confident of their ability to do just that.

The last time Stroud beat their neighbours at Fromehall Park was on September 7th, 1966, when two penalty goals by "you know who" (Russell Hillier) gave them victory by 6-3.

Four years prior to that, they won 9-6 at the Park with a penalty goal and a dropped goal by Mike Hughes and a dropped goal by Brian Pollard.

The last occasion Stroud won at Kingsholm was on September 10th, 1959 by 17-14, their points coming from Ian Kewell (1 try, 1 dropped goal), Hillier (1 dropped goal 1 penalty goal, 1 conversion) and Roger Whyte (1 try).

A good game is hoped for tonight and while hoping Gloucester will enjoy it, we're naturally all cheering for a Town victory.
