COACH'S NOTES

Being an old player of the Red and Whites, a more than big welcome to GLOUCESTER tonight. They have had, for them, a patchy season results wise but have, nevertheless, amassed a prolific points scoring total. And let us remember they play 1st class opposition every week!

Gloucester's style of play remains basically unaltered since my happy days at Kingsholm—domination forward, an intelligent back row and simple yet effective back play afterwards to run the ball in. All this allied with two more basic ingredients—no mistakes, and sound goal kicking.

Let us watch their play tonight and observe whether these principles still hold.

This is the last Club match of the season and it is to be hoped that we Pirates have learned something from our mistakes. All players should have a searching self analysis during the close season.

I suggest everyone in every side asks himself the following questions:-

- 1. Do I really know the laws?
- 2. Do I make informed errors?
- 3. Do I train as I should?
- 4. Do I always accept the referee's decision?
- 5. Do I travel away from home often enough?
- 6. Do I consider the Team Secretary and cry off in good time?
- 7. Do I believe Rugby is a young man's game—the best in the world, and that one's playing years are all too short?
- 8. Do I try to improve my game and pick the brains of opposing players and past Pirates over a glass of beer.

One final question for spectators, rugby lovers, committee men—everyone—Do I support the team as often as I could?

PS.—Don't forget the "Over 30's" match on Monday night after which there will be a Players Meeting to choose next year's Captains.

PPS.—SEVENS on MAY 2ND—FINAL 6.0 p.m. Dance in Club House afterwards.
