Club News

Make no mistake about it, Llanelli at full strength at Strodey Park are really formidable opposition; 0-6 at half time looked promising but they cut loose in the last quarter and in spite of heroic tackling we were well and truly "done".

Owing to our reserve being unfit and our hooker missing the train, Don Wills stood in as prop and put up a great performance, he must surely be unique in the history of Rugby Football; - his opposite number Barry Llewlyn!

Alan Raines makes his first appearance of the season in the senior side and Rob Bertram props again after an absence of 4 years in South Africa.

We extend a warm welcome to Gloucester our opponents today they are having a fine season and will prove very stern opposition.

Bryan Toye has asked for the following notice to be printed in our programme.

The Wasps appeal is now clearly off the ground and has collected some £1,320 to date. To remind members; The object of the appeal is to collect sufficient money to pay off the Club debts that currently take such a heavy toll on the subscriptions collected, because of the capital and interest repayments necessary.

All time is given free by the organisers, and what is now required are some 40 Club Members each of whom being prepared to approach up to 12 Wasps known to them to encourage them to make a donation. Helpers are urgently required. If you have come forward thanks, if not, please contact Bryan Toye, Bill Matterson or Jim Hayes if you consider you could help in this way.

Local industry has been approached. Please make the appeal as widely known amongst them as possible, if any of you here today have any such contact.
