OUR VISITORS

Kingsholm supporters cannot deny that Gloucester have kept many of the good things in rucker until late in the season and this continues with the visit of our old and valued Welsh friends—and formidable rivals—Cardiff, to whom we extend a particularly cordial welcome this afternoon.

Unfortunately, over the past few years, the famous Welshmen have only visited Kingsholm every other season, with the alternate match being played at the Arms Park. Last season Gloucester, though admittedly not at full strength, fell heavily at Welsh headquarters, where Cardiff won convincingly on the evening of Wednesday, September 3rd, by 22 points to 3, the Cherry and Whites' sole contribution to affairs being a penalty goal by John Spalding. On the last occasion that the two clubs met at Kingsholm, on Wednesday, September 25th, 1968, it will no doubt be recalled by many supporters that Gloucester beat Cardiff by 15 points to 6. It was a remarkable game in many ways insomuch as all the scoring came from a series of penalty goals by both sides, despite the fact that there were numerous entertaining and exciting moments. Eric Stephens landed five for Gloucester, with Dennis Gethin kicking two for Cardiff.

KINGSHOLM KACKLE

This afternoon the St. John's Ambulance men make their annual collection. Ken Sparrow and his lads are "on parade" for all matches, come fair weather or foul, giving their services so unsparingly and they deserve a bumper collection.

The final draw for this season's "200 Club" will be held in the Social Club at 9 p.m. on Friday, April 16th. Only fully paid up members will be entitled to take part in the draw, and any outstanding contributions must be made before this date. Until then Bill Cale will be in attendance at the Social Club before and after every home, while he and Reg Collins will both, as usual, receive subscriptions next Friday evening.

Remember, this final draw is the bonanza one, with the first prize of £350 and two others of £50 each.

Tickets are on sale on the ground for the Rugby Union centenary match between the South-West XV and the President's XV at Bristol on Wednesday evening, April 14th. A few stand tickets are available at £1, while others on sale are : Enclosure 40p (8/-) ; Ground 30p (6/-) ; Scholars 15p (3/-).
