OUR VISITORS

A cordial welcome this afternoon to New Brighton, our Easter Saturday visitors from Cheshire, who invariably provide the type of holiday fare appreciated by Kingsholm supporters.

New Brighton's last visit to Kingsholm two years ago, on Easter Saturday, April 5th, 1969, produced such a game of sparkle and rich entertainment, Gloucester winning by 25 points to 9. Bob Clewes (2), Gary White, Alan Brinn and John Bayliss scored tries for the Cherry and Whites, with Eric Stephens making two conversions and adding two penalty goals. We look forward to another enjoyable game today with our Cheshire friends.

KINGSHOLM KACKLE

Ken Sparrow and his colleagues of St. John's Ambulance Brigade wish to express their deep gratitude and thanks for the splendid response to their collection on the ground at the Cardiff match last Saturday. The total reached £49 plus and a club official made it exactly £50. Ken says they have been trying for many years to reach this target. "Thanks to the generosity of the Kingsholm crowd we've done it", he said.

Congratulations to the lads on their excellent victory over Cardiff last Saturday. The Welsh "invasion" has certainly been of no avail this season and Kingsholm is indeed the burial ground of Welsh hopes—indeed, of all visiting clubs' hopes except Bedford way back in early October before Gloucester had really warmed to their task of defeating so many top clubs.

There are still tickets available for the Rugby Union centenary match between the South & South-West Counties and the President's XV at the Memorial Ground, Bristol, next Wednesday evening, (kick-off 6.30 p.m.). These may be obtained at the office on the ground before or after this afternoon's game.

On Easter Monday, with the usual 3.15 p.m. kick-off, Harrogate, newcomers to Gloucester's fixture list, will be the visitors to Kingsholm, while next Saturday, April 17th, there is yet another home game with Sale as our opponents.
