OUR VISITORS

Kingsholm's "Easter parade" continues this afternoon with the visit of Harrogate, new friends from Yorkshire, to whom we extend a very hearty welcome. There is an eighteenth century proverb that says a constant guest is never welcome; but this can scarcely apply to Harrogate, who are newcomers to Gloucester's fixture list.

But while they may come as comparative strangers to Kingsholm supporters, Harrogate's insistence on playing open, entertaining rugby whenever possible has not gone unnoticed by enthusiasts "down south". The Yorkshire club, who met Cheltenham on Saturday, are on their Easter tour. We sincerely hope that they are enjoying their tour of the West Country and that the hospitality, especially in Gloucester, comes up to their expectations!

KINGSHOLM KACKLE

Because of the Easter holidays it was imperative to have the contents of this programme at the printers nearly a week ago. It will be appreciated, therefore, that the composition of the teams and even these jottings may not be so up-to-date as we would have wished. We apologise to our supporters for any inconvenience, but can assure them that any team changes will be duly announced over the loud-speaker by one of the accomplished "broadcasting team".

Just a reminder that the final draw for this season's "200 Club" will be made in the Social Club next Friday, April 16th, at 9 p.m. Only fully paid up members will be entitled to take part in the draw and any outstanding contributions must be made before this date. There will be the first prize of £350 and two others of £50 each.

There will be an extra match at Kingsholm before the season ends and supporters are asked to note the change of fixtures. The game with neighbouring Cheltenham at Kingsholm—appearing as May 1st on current lists—will now be played on Wednesday evening, April 21st, with a 7 p.m. kick-off. On Saturday, May 1st, Exeter will now visit Kingsholm to round off the season.

Next Saturday, April 17th, another Cheshire side, Sale, will be the visitors to Kingsholm and the kick-off will, as usual, be 3.15 p.m.
