WELCOME TO THE ALL WHITES !

This afternoon we extend a very warm welcome to Swansea, the famous Welsh All Whites, who only visit Kingsholm every alternate season. They are having an exceptionally successful run in recent weeks and last Saturday defeated Llanelli by 12 points to 7.

Swansea were one of the few clubs to beat Gloucester last season, winning at St Helen's by 6 points to nil. The All Whites' last visit to Kingsholm, however, on Saturday, February 21st, 1970, ended in victory for Gloucester by 19 points to 3, tries being scored by Terry Hopson (3) and Bob Clewes, with Gary White making two conversions and landing a penalty goal.

KINGSHOLM KACKLE

This afternoon Gloucestershire meet powerful Middlesex in the semi-final of the county championship at Richmond Athletic Ground. We wish them every success in their efforts to reach the final for the third consecutive season, though it is somewhat unfortunate that they have deprived Gloucester of six regular players on a day when we have such formidable opponents as Swansea.

As most supporters now know, Gloucester meet London Welsh in the quarter-final of the new Rugby Union national club knock-out competition at Old Deer Park in a fortnight's time, on Saturday, March 4th. Terrific interest has been aroused and arrangements are in hand to run coaches to Old Deer Park for this important match. All those wishing to book seats are asked to contact Mervyn Elway or Jim Holder in the Social Club, where they may obtain details as to cost, times of departure and return.

Another eagerly-awaited match is the Schools' 19 group international between England and Wales, to be played at Kingsholm on Wednesday, March 29th kick-off 7.15 p.m. Those who watched the last 19 group matches, both against Scotland, at Kingsholm, still recall the brilliant rucker played. With Wales as the opponents a "full house" is expected at Kingsholm.

Tickets, already selling like the proverbial hot cakes - and large quantities in Wales! - are obtainable now at the office on the ground, from the Gloucester R.F.C. secretary, Harold King, 126, Podsmead Road, or from Hudson's, sports outfitters, of Northgate Street. Prices are : Stand 75p ; Ground 25p ; Scholars and Senior Citizens 15p.

The March issue of "Rugby World", now on sale at all leading bookshops and newsagents, price 17½p, contains a full-length article on Gloucester's two current international forwards, Mike Burton and Alan Brinn. There are also articles of great interest from all parts of the country, including Rugby in the South-West. A.R.
