Behind the pack Gloucester possess one of the game's shrewdest tacticians in scrum half Micky Booth who is partnered by Tommy Palmer. Palmer will take part in England's tour of South Africa next month.

Centre threequarter John Bayliss is a particularly uncompromising player and full back Eric Stephens has few peers (except perhaps Sam Doble) as a great kicker.

Meanwhile the Saints' two changes from the team which beat Headingley, result in the return of Rodger Arneil and Roger Horwood in place of Frank Osborne and Jon Raphael.

Chris Wardlow was unavailable for tonight's match and Ian Wright, Andy Johnson, Ian Moffatt and Roger Morris are all on the injury list.

Moseley are the only side to have beaten the Saints at Franklin's Gardens this year and with the Cup Final little more than a week away, Gloucester will be keen to follow their example.
