WELCOME TO CHELTENHAM

This evening we extend a very cordial welcome to our old friends and neighbours, Cheltenham, who are in the process of team building under their new skipper, Mike Bayliss, the former Gloucester player. Last season the Cherry and Whites completed the double over the Town, winning at the Athletic Ground on October 13th, 1971, by 18 points to 6 and at Kingsholm on March 15th of this year by 21 points to 3. We look forward to another enjoyable tussle between City and Town!

KINGSHOLM KACKLE

With these notes might also be incorporated "Cheltenham Chatter", so no apology is needed for giving a "plug" to the well-known local Town side, Old Patesians, who are this season celebrating their jubilee year. And, as part of the celebrations, the "Old Pats" play an Invitation XV, selected by Cheltenham R.F.C. president and former England centre W. P. C. (Phil) Davies, at the Athletic Ground, Cheltenham, next Sunday, kick-off 3 p.m. A touch of nostalgia is brought to the match with the inclusion of several old stalwarts of a few years ago, among them Peter Ford and, more recently, Mickie Booth. The match is in aid of two charities, the Star Centre for Handicapped Youth, and the "Golden Key", so give your support to such a worthy cause and watch some of your old favourites.

Tickets for the first round match of the Rugby Union national club knock-out competition between Gloucester - the first time they have been drawn at home - and Bath at Kingsholm on Tuesday, October 31st, are now on sale. But supporters are asked, please NOT to apply to the Gloucester secretary, Mr. H. C. King. Instead, all applications for this match only must be made to the club treasurer, Mr. A. D. Wadley, of "Byeways", Belmont Avenue, Hucclecote, Gloucester, enclosing a stamped addressed envelope and remittance. The prices for this match, which, in accordance with Rugby Union rules, is an ALL PAY one, are: Centre Stand 60p; Wing Stand 40p. Applications, then, to Doug Wadley on this occasion and NOT to Harold King, who is busy trying to sort out tickets for the County championship game with Cornwall next Saturday week, October 21st, and, of course, the All Blacks' match the following Saturday, October 28th.

Congratulations to our club on being invited to take part in the famous Middlesex "Sevens" next May. This is, as we know, the leading seven-a-side tournament of the Rugby world, and the invitation is indeed an honour for the Cherry and Whites.

Next Saturday the senior side travel to London to meet Harlequins, but the all-conquering United lads have an attractive fixture with Richmond Vikings, kick-off 3.15 p.m., at Kingsholm. A.R.
