A WELCOME TO OUR VISITORS FROM CORNWALL

Today's game sees the opening of yet another season of County Championship matches, and for the first of our two 'home' County games, Gloucestershire are pleased to welcome the Cornwall team, Officials and particularly George Pearce in his capacity as President, together with their supporters to Kingsholm this afternoon. The County Union is indeed fortunate to have these facilities of the Gloucester Club, together with the help and co-operation of the Club Officials, for staging this game.

Both Counties have played their usual programme of friendly games in preparation for today's encounter, and each will be out to secure that victory which could ensure progression to the later stages of the County Championship. Gloucestershire must be quietly confident, but have to remember that Cornwall were the only opponents to beat them in last season's seven County Championship games. Invariably there is never much of a margin between the points scored when our teams meet, but I am sure that the game will produce that kind of Rugby Football which will satisfy all ardent supporters, whether they come from the Duchy or from Gloucestershire.

May the better team win in a game which will be well remembered.

C. GARDNER, President G.R.F.U.
