THE 1972 ENGLAND CHAMPIONS

We welcome our old friends from Kingsholm Gloucester this evening and take this opportunity of thanking them for readily agreeing to rearrange the fixture after the Recreation Ground was flooded last December.

The Easter matches here on the Recreation Ground brought more success to Philip Hall and his team with convincing victories over the Harlequins, Otley and O.M.T's.

It was also very encouraging to see so many young United players playing for the first time in the successful 1st XV.
