* Internationals

Today we welcome Hertfordshire from the Southern Division Group, to the West Country. This is only the third time we have met in 21 years.

We last played them in the Quarter final at Croxley Green in 1970, Alan Brinn being the only surviving player in the Gloucestershire side from that game.

We congratulate Hertfordshire on winning their Group, it all depended on the result of their last game having to win outright against Buckinghamshire (last season's Quarter finalists) away.

For today's match we hope the weather will be kind to us, to enable both sides to play fast open rugby, to be enjoyed by all.
