CORDIAL WELCOME TO OUR NEW FRIENDS, BÈGLES!

Ce soir nous recevons les gars de Bègles en leur souhaitant le bienvenu de tout cœur!

This evening we extend a very hearty welcome to new friends from France in Bègles, a thriving town in the district of Bordeaux (Commune de la Gironde arrondissement de Bordeaux). The rugby lads of Bègles which, incidentally, has wine, resin and dried cod as some of its main products, make their first visit to Kingsholm with a reputation as a powerful side, one of the strongest among the French clubs.

Bègles are on tour of the West Country, this evening's game being their first. On Saturday they meet Clifton, then travel again to play Bath at the Recreation Ground next Tuesday. Their name, as near as we can get it in English is pronounced BAYGLES.

KINGSHOLM KACKLE Sad Blow

Last Saturday against Coventry the play, as Hamlet said, pleas'd not the million, and Gloucester, it must be admitted, were a trifle fortunate to force a draw with that last gasp penalty of Peter Butler's. Yet, as one supporter afterwards remarked, there is always the consoling thought that if Gloucester can play badly and draw with the formidable Midlanders, they are not likely to lose many matches when they hit their true form.

It was a sad blow to lose winger Bob Clewes in this game with a broken collar-bone. Bob's fourth minute try against Coventry was his seventh already this season and we wish him a speedy return to the side!

Coach to Bristol

This evening's game is the last at Kingsholm for the first XV this month, though United have an attractive fixture with Birmingham United here on Saturday, (kick-off 3.00 p.m.), while the senior side travel to meet Fylde. Next Wednesday evening Gloucester make the short trip to Fromehall Park to play neighbouring Stroud, and on the following Saturday, September 27th, there is the game against those long-established friends and rivals, Bristol, at the Memorial Ground. It is intended to run a coach for the Bristol game and all those wishing to book seats are asked to contact Jim Holder in the Social Club. The coach will leave Kingsholm at 12.45 p.m. and the price is 70p.

Gloucester's next home match incidentally, will be against another powerful side, Moseley, on Wednesday evening, October 1st.

Please Park Prettily!

Late arrivals at last Saturday's match with Coventry met with some inconvenience in parking their cars. May we respectfully ask all our patrons to arrive at the ground as early as possible so that their car parking spaces are assured.

We would also ask all supporters with cars, if they would be so kind, to "please park prettily," as the notice says in some hotel grounds. It is surprising how many extra vehicles may be accommodated if the parking is tidy.

250 Club

A further reminder of the invitation to all supporters to join the highly successful 250 Club, with its valuable prizes each month and an extra large one at the end of the season.

The subscription for the whole season is £6.50p, but this may be paid by instalments to the organiser, Aleck Lankester, or to any member of the 250 Club committee – Terry Tandy, Fred Ewers and Mervyn Elway. Payments may be made on any Friday evening in the Social Club, or before and after 1st XV home matches.

The sum of £750 was raised last year and this will be used in brick-facing the clubhouse. The first monthly draw this season will take place in the Social Club on Friday, November 28th, at 9.00 p.m. Already the number of vacancies is dwindling rapidly.
