HARLEQUINS

v

GLOUCESTER

STOOP MEMORIAL GROUND,
CRANEFORD WAY, TWICKENHAM

Saturday, 11th October, 1975

Kick-off 2.45 p.m.

OFFICIAL PROGRAMME 10p

Programme Notes

As the Twickenham pitch is undergoing repairs we welcome Gloucester to the Stoop Memorial Ground. The Harlequin team will have been encouraged to note Gloucester's defeat at the hands of Bedford last week, but past experience has proved that Gloucester are always a difficult side to beat. We are still smarting over their fine 33-10 victory at Kingsholme last season.

Harlequin supporters will hope that their team will continue to play with the spirit and flair shown in the final twenty minutes against Swansea. This week's team shows three changes. Gordon Wood has returned to Cambridge so Robin Hammond occupies the left wing as he did earlier in the season against Northampton. In the forwards, Terry Claxton has recovered from injury and displaces Roger Looker while Peter Simmons comes in at wing forward, after showing fine form in the Wanderers, for Jon Legg.
