A Message from the President of the Lancashire County
Rugby Football Union

I would like to extend a very warm welcome to all our many friends from Gloucestershire, players, officials and supporters.
Remembering the games we have played over the last few years,
I am sure today’s will be no exception and we can all look forward to an interesting and exciting match.

I think all Lancastrians would support me in saying how sad it is that the name of Phil Blakeway does not appear in the team sheet, but I am also very happy to see the return of Mike Sleman and John Carleton to the Lancashire side, after injury.

Today’s game is a crucial one as before the start there are so many possible permutations for the top place in our group.

Finally, to the Vale of Lune and its many hard workers, many thanks for making today’s game possible.

R. H. WISEMAN, President
LANCASHIRE
