WELCOME TO GLOUCESTER

Tonight we welcome our old rivals, Gloucester, to the Prince of Wales stadium for their annual visit. The match has been brought forward a couple of days at the request of the city club, who are faced with playing in the semi final against Bath this coming weekend, and naturally wished to have their full side available for this encounter. We note that Gloucester have announced a very strong side, which includes four internationals, and another in the bench.

Last season Cheltenham gave a fine performance in holding a strong Gloucester side extremely well to a 10-12 interval lead and a final score of 27pts to 13pts. Earlier this season at Kingsholm Gloucester triumphed by 22pts to 15, and we will be all out to reverse that defeat.

Two lucky people will watch the Wales v England international at Cardiff FREE on Saturday 20th April, for Cheltenham RFC have arranged a competition for which the prize is a pair of stand tickets for the game, a meal for two at a Beefeater Steak House, two rail tickets from any rail station, and £25 spending money! The prizes have been given by Beefeater Steak Houses, and tickets are now available from committee members and behind the bar.

Cheltenham play Birmingham this coming Saturday away, while the visitors to the stadium will be Magor, who meet the United.
