FOREWORD

It is appropriate in this first programme of the season that we extend a welcome to new members, and to previous members and supporters we say welcome back to St. Helens. We have an exciting season in prospect with the game against the touring Fiji side on October 16 to look forward to. We offer our best wishes to the Swansea team for a happy and succesful season.

Our first duty is to congratulate Mr. Gwyn Lewis on being elected as Chairman of the Swansea club, and to Mark Davies on his re-election as Captain of the 1st XV. We also congratulate Mr. Alun Thomas, a former Swansea player, who is this years President of the Welsh Rugby Union.

This afternoon we welcome to St. Helens that much respected West Country side Gloucester. In the first match of last season Swansea played Gloucester at the Kingsholm ground and in a closely fought game the All Whites ran out winners by 20 points to 19.

The Gloucester club have always been able to produce forwards of international calibre, indeed Malcolm Preedy, Mike Teague, Steve Mills and John Fidler all toured South Africa with the England team. John Orwin who also plays for the RAF and Combined Services played in the second row for England against Wales last season.

The future of England No. 8 Mike Teague is in some doubt. He has been a prominent member of the Gloucester back row for several seasons and they are hoping he will be back with them on his return from America where he has spent the summer working in San Diego.

Gloucesters leading try scorer over the past few seasons is wing three-quarter Nick Price who has been well served by strong running centre Richard Mogg.

The appointment of Jeff Herdman as the Swansea coach is without doubt a popular one. He served Swansea with distinction for many seasons and played for the Wales B side. We wish him every success in his new capacity. His predecessor Stan Addicott has moved on to be one of the team selectors after a very successful period as coach. The Swansea club are indebted to him for all the hard work he gave to the club over many seasons.

GLAN LEWIS
