*Gloucestershire

This evening we are pleased once again to entertain our old rivals from the north of the county mighty Gloucester. This annual fixture is always much looked forward to by players and supporters from Lydney.

Once again Gloucester are having a good season and lead the John Smith Table A having lost only one game. Unfortunately they were knocked out of the John Player Cup last Saturday and our commiserations go with them.

Anyone reading reports of the game will be aware that the referee for that game was our 'friend' Mr. Terry Friend, Lydney have had cause to remember him over past years because he has sent 5 players off from our club, enough said.

Lydney's team shows a number of changes tonight because of injury with Mark Fennell, Kerrie Jenkins and Paul Howell all missing. New Zealander T. J. Carpenter replaces Kerrie Jenkins and Andy Eagles comes in for Mark Fennell. Young Glamorgan county cricketer Steven James plays in place of Paul Howell and Rob Carpenter returns to open side flanker.

The referee for tonight's game is Mr. D. W. (Ollie) Davis from Pontypool one of the first Welsh exchanges in Gloucestershire and he is most welcome.

On Saturday the first XV play Barnstaple at Regentsholme in a rearranged fixture and on Easter Monday the Utd XV play Cinderford at Lydney.
