Good evening and welcome to Dockham Road. Tonight's game is indeed an historic event, the opening match of our centenary season.

To our visitors Gloucester their players, supporters and officials we extend a warm welcome and trust they will have an enjoyable evening with us.

Records show that the first meeting between these two club was back in 1895 when the game ended in a draw. Fixtures continued both home and away until the late 1920's.

The Cinderford team is based mainly on last season's successful squad which won 30 of 38 games played with one exception at outside- half where Bryn Teague a former Spartans players makes his debut.

Gloucester have selected their strongest available side and we look forward to the prospect of an enthralling contest.
