Club Notes

Tonight we welcome our old adversaries Gloucester who seem to have found new stamina this season and are coming back to the form we expect of them. After their good win against Bridgend last weekend they will be without Mike Teague who was involved in that unfortunate incident and possibly John Gadd through injury but there is no doubt they will endeavour to stop our recent successful run of wins.

After Saturday's win against Glamorgan Wanderers Jon Webb has now taken the lead in the scoring tables being leading try scorer with 17 tries and leading goal kicker with 26 conversions and 10 penalties – what a season he is having! Surely it can't be too long before the selectors realise what an asset he would be to the National side.

We are very grateful again tonight to our sponsors Courage Limited Wessex Region for their continued financial support to the club, we are sure their Staff and their guests will have a very enjoyable evening. Our match ball sponsor is another of our old celebrities John Thorne ex-Bristol, Gloucestershire and England now mine host of the Berkeley Arms Off Licence, Lodge Causeway, Bristol.

JOHN PLAYER CUP 3RD ROUND

The next home fixture on the Memorial Ground is on Sunday next 8th February Kick-off 3.00 p.m. when the 1st XV entertain Cambridge.

Supporters Notes

DO YOU REMEMBER?

It seems incredible to think that our last home encounter with Gloucester was cancelled because Gloucester had to play in the First Round of the John Player Cup having failed to qualify for automatic entry into the Third Round! We travelled to Kingsholm subsequently for a Third Round fixture and again, a few days later, and suffered defeat on both occasions!

PLAYER PROFILE

This young player was born in Ilford, Essex on 17th April 1964. He is precisely 6 feet tall and weighs 13 stones 10 lbs and takes a size 8½ boot. He was educated at Brockworth School, Gloucester (where he and Crayton Phillips both played their first rugby). He had an England Schools Trial and played for England Colts. He has also represented Gloucestershire and the S.W. Counties. He currently plays for Loughborough Colleges' First Team as well as for Bristol. For his home team he has scored 180 - 200 points. Today's personality is in his final year as a student and hopes to obtain a B.Sc.Hons. in Physical Education and Sports Science. He is single. His best rugby memory was as a late call-up for the S.W. Division against the North — he scored a try in the closing minutes, and his worst memory was being on the losing county side earlier this season against Cornwall at Redruth, bringing elimination from the County Championship. He had no hesitation about his favourite players: Alan Morley and Serge Blanco. His most difficult opponent was Rory Underwood in the divisional game. He likes "Cheers!" from T.V., and David Bowie is his favourite musician, with Billy Connolly as his favourite comic and Italian pasta as his choice of food.

His rugby ambition is to play for his county but he'd also like to be able to maintain his Bristol Club place after leaving University, as he likes the club and area enormously. (Name at the foot of the page).
