This evening it is a pleasure and a honour to welcome the county officials and their team to Regentsholme for Lydney's centenary year.

Although a lot of players have made themselves unavailable for county rugby this season Gloucestershire still field a powerful team. This match is being used for as a trial game by the selectors before they select their team for the first championship game. Lydney were disappointed to lose last Saturday against Camborne in a game that was spoilt by a very strong wind.

For tonight's game Ashley James replaces Stephen James at full back, with Paul Howell and Simon Morris returning to the centre. Nicholas Nelmes, Andy Marriott and Robert Carpenter come into the forwards. Robert Mills moves to outside half to renew his partnership with Julian Davis.

Next Saturday Cross Keys are the visitors to Regentsholme K.O. 3.00pm.
