WATERLOO V GLOUCESTER Saturday, October 31, 1987. Kick-off 2.45 p.m. Division One Courage Clubs Championship MATCH SPONSORS: TSB BANK

We welcome Gloucester to Blundellsands today for this the second of Waterloo's games in the Courage Clubs Championship. Gloucester are undefeated after their three games in the league, beating Nottingham last week who were also defeated here two weeks ago in Waterloo's first league game.

That defeat of Nottingham plus the fact that Waterloo have also won all their other games is why they have this week been named as the Whitbread Best Bitter Senior Rugby Club of the Month by "Rugby World and Post"

The winner's plaque will be presented to the club prior to the game today by Nigel Starmer-Smith, editor of "Rugby World and Post".

Nigel is here today also as presenter of BBC TV's Rugby Special. We welcome him and his team to Blundellsands for what is the match of the day with the local soccer derby not taking place until tomorrow. It also means more airtime for Roger Hughes of Radio Merseyside.

Waterloo's first league game brought a good gate which is a hopeful sign that the new system will bring in better crowds. Early indications are that today's gate will be even better and will no doubt contain a good number of Gloucester fans. We hope newcomers to the club enjoy the re-furbished grounds and clubhouse which make Waterloo, we believe, one of the best grounds in the country.
