Welcome to Gloucester

'Shell-shocked' is how Bristol vice-captain Paul Burke described the player's feelings after the 14pts-12 defeat by Worcester in the Fourth Round of this season's Tetley's Bitter Cup at a rain soaked Sixways last Tuesday.

"I thought that we had got ourselves out of jail and was ready to grab the ball and punt it down the M5 when Stewart Piercy blew the final whistle. Instead we were penalised, and the rest is history.

"We want to thank the travelling fans for all their support in terrible conditions and we owe it to them to pick ourselves up and get two League points from this game."

So it's back to the Allied Dunbar Premiership this Sunday afternoon as we welcome to the Memorial Ground the supporters, players and officials of Gloucester Rugby Football Club. This is the 202nd meeting between the two clubs with the fixture dating back to 24 September 1892 when Gloucester, with home advantage, scored through two tries and two drop goals to win by 14pts-nil. The return leg was nearly six months later, 11 March 1893, when the game finished 2pts-2 with both sides scoring a try. The Cherry and Whites won the first League game, on 26 September 1987 here at the Memorial Ground, by 21pts-16 with the visitors' tries coming from Dave Spencer, Jim Breeze and Tim Smith while Nick Marment kicked three conversions and a penalty. Bristol's reply came from an Andy Dunn try and four penalties from the boot of Jonathan Webb.

The League honours couldn't be more even with seven wins a piece and one draw. Gloucester's last League success here was on 3 April 1993 while Bristol have won on three occasions since. Full details of the League encounters are on page 7.

This season Gloucester are in ninth place in the table, two above Bristol, have won three of their nine matches plus a draw against Sale. Last Sunday

Gloucester lost 26pts-20 against Wasps at Loftus Road to make it just one win in their last ten away matches.

Quite how the League champions managed a win will probably be the talk of The Shed for some weeks in a match of great spectacle and huge commitment. The victory for the Londoners means that they were two points ahead of Bristol, before this weekend's games, and one point behind Gloucester with a game in hand on both West Country clubs.

"Wasps showed great character to come back from the dead as they did. They are clearly on the way back to their best form," said Gloucester boss Richard Hill. "You have to get grit and spirit back when you find yourselves third from bottom of the table. That's more important than playing flowing rugby initially.

"I am not going to blame any individuals because overall I'm very happy because we are playing some excellent rugby. It's when you play badly and lose that you have to start worrying.

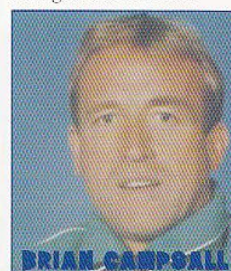

"In fact, I have not seen a Gloucester side play so well away from home since I got involved here. We are still learning, as a young side has to do, and if you want to become a great side you have to go through this harsh learning process."

Gloucester beat Jewson National League One leaders London Welsh 34pts-18 in their Fourth Round Tetley's Bitter Cup tie at Old Deer Park. They now face another away tie next Saturday when they take on Northampton who beat Bedford 34pts-21 at Franklins Gardens in the last round.

This afternoon the Cherry and Whites are without Frenchman Philippe Saint-Andre who is suffering from calcification of the muscles surrounding a tear in his left thigh. The 33 year old, in his first season at Kingsholm, is likely to be sidelined for four weeks.

Match Officials

It had been planned that the referee this afternoon would be from the Federation Francaise de Rugby but then the RFU must have realised the French connections at both clubs and changed their minds.

BRIAN CAMPSALL

The referee this afternoon is Brian Campsall from Sowerby, Halifax in Yorkshire who is now in his fifteenth year of refereeing. For the past four seasons Brian has been a member of England's International Panel.

Brian's first International was in Dublin in 1996 when Scotland beat Ireland 16pts-10. It was Ireland's 60th defeat at home in the Five Nations, the worse return of all the countries.

He has refereed in the Dubai Sevens, Malaysian 10's and the Hong Kong Sevens as well as the historic cross-code challenge between Bath and Wigan at Twickenham.

Last weekend Brian, a married teacher with two daughters, was in charge at Vicarage Road as Saracens beat Harlequins 25pts-16.

The touch judges this afternoon are Graham Hughes from Runcorn in Cheshire and Ashley Reay from Stonebridge in Somerset.

Steve Oziegbe Ojomoh - Backrow

Born: 25 May 1970
Height: 6ft 2in Weight: 15st 10lb
Former clubs: Rosslyn Park, Bath. Born in Benin City, Nigeria and educated at West Buckland School in Devon and the University of the West of England. Joined Bath, from Rosslyn Park, in 1989 but became the second England international to be transfer-listed by them, following the departure of wing Jon Sleightholme to Northampton, and became a Gloucester player at the start of this year. England A debut was in New Zealand in 1992 with his debut being at Twickenham in the 13pts-12 defeat by Ireland in February 1994. Also played for England at Schools 18 Group, Colts, Under 21 and Emerging Players plus the South West and the Barbarians. Honours outside Rugby: South West decathlon champion in 1988; runner-up in 1988 Schools discus championship; South West long jump and triple jump champion; third in All England decathlon championship.

Philippe Saint-Andre - wing

Born: 19 April 1967
Height: 5ft 11in Weight: 13st 8lb
Former clubs: Romans, Clermont-Ferrand, Montferrand. Born in Romans-sur-Isere, Philippe became the first wing to lead his country, since Christian Darrouty in 1967, when he succeeded Olivier Roumat as captain at Murrayfield in March 1994. France won in Scotland for the first time in 16 years. Originally joined Montferrand from his home club Romans in 1988, and was soon capped at B level that year before making his full debut as a centre in the 12pts-6 defeat by Romania (their first on French soil) in May 1990 at Stade Patrice Brocas, Auch. Probably his most treasured try was when he scored under the posts at Twickenham in January 1991. Serge Blanco had launched a counter attack from the French dead-ball line and fed through Jean-Baptiste Lafond, Didier Camberabero, Philippe Sella and then Camberabero's boot to behind the line for Saint-Andre to scorch through. Missed most of last season due to surgery on a groin strain, although he did return to appear in time for Italy's unexpected 40pts-32 victory at Grenoble's Stade Lesdigieres in March 1997. Became Gloucester's first major overseas signing at the start of the season and made his League debut against Bristol at Kingsholm scoring two tries in their 35pts-13 victory last August.

Mark
Mapletoft

Mark Sterland Mapletoft - full back/flyhalf

Born: 25 January 1971
 Height: 5ft 7in. Weight 13st 8lb
 Previous club: Rugby
 Born in Mansfield and educated at Bawnmore Middle and Lawrence Sheriff School in Rugby and Loughborough University.
 Scored 201pts in his 41 League appearances for Rugby through 6 tries, 14 conversions, 45 penalties and 3 drop goals. Joined Gloucester and scored a try in his League debut away to Wasps in September 1994. He went on to score in the next 7 League games and equalled Tim Smith's record of 85 League points in a season. (On his debut for England A at Kingsholm he kicked two conversions and two penalties as they were beaten 35pts-20 by South Africa A in December 1996.
 Mark made his senior debut in the Second Test against Argentina in Buenos Aires in June 1997. Playing at fly-half he kicked one penalty as England lost 33pts-13. Also represented England at Schools 18 Group, Under 21's and the Sevens plus the Midlands Divisional side. Briefly had signed for Bath in the summer of 1995 before changing his mind and returned to Gloucester. A series of knee injuries have dogged his career and recently he has been troubled by a chronic injury from the over use of leg.
 As a schoolboy represented Coventry City Reserves.

Dave Sims - lock

Born: 22 November 1969
 Height: 6ft 7in Weight 17st 10lb
 Former club: Longlevens, Sunnybank (Brisbane).
 Born in Gloucester and educated at Churchdown School.
 Grandson of the former Cheltenham prop Thomas William Price who gained the first of his six England caps at Murrayfield when Scotland won by 6pts-3.
 Dave played his early rugby with Longlevens and enjoyed a spell with the Sunnybank club in Brisbane before representing England Under 21's and touring New Zealand with England B in 1992.
 Played 22 games for England A/B and was in the English Rugby Partnership XV that played New Zealand at Ashton Gate last November.
 Also made 12 appearances for the South West and has played for the Barbarians.
