

GLOUCESTER JOURNAL

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1894.

FOOTBALL.

NORTH v. SOUTH

The last of the trial games arranged by the County Union was played at the County Ground, Bristol, when sides representing the North and South were opposed to each other.

North 2 goals
South 2 tries

The following players were afterwards selected to represent the county against Somerset at Bristol on Saturday, October 27th : –

H. Bartlett (Gloucester), back; W. H. Taylor and W. H. Devonshire (Gloucester), R. Whitehead (Lydney), and E. Fenner (Bristol), three-quarter backs; W. J. Dias (Clifton) and W. T. Pearce (Bristol), half-backs; W. Watts and J. Bowley (Newport), A. Collins and W. Leighton (Gloucester), T. O. Davies, W. Birch, and W. Jarman (Bristol), F. O. Poole (Oxford University), forwards.

Reserves. – Dykes (Lydney), back; Rae (Cheltenham and Guy's Hospital), Baker (Clifton), L. Smith and Haines (Stroud), and Palmer (Bristol), three-quarter backs; Stephens (Gloucester) and Hughes (Lydney), half-backs; Lockyer (Bristol), Wellings and Price (Gloucester), Davies (Cheltenham), Smith (Stroud), and Duffett (Bristol), forwards.