

GLOUCESTER A v. BROMSGROVE.

By "TEEK."

THIS GAME RESULTED IN BROMSGROVE GETTING BEATEN TO THE TUNE OF 37 POINTS TO SIX — AND THEIR SHORTS WERE TO BLAME FOR IT ENTIRELY. TIGHT SHORTS LOOK VERY WELL ON PARADE BUT IN THE FIELD THEY CRAMP THE ANATOMY.

BROMS-
GROVE
PLAY-ERS
PARADING ON THE LOCAL BOULE-VARDS

— SMART, NO DOUBT, BUT —

BROMS-
GROVE PLAYERS TRYING TO FLAP THEIR LEGS

ON THE FIELD — NOTE THE ANATOMY BEING CRAMPED.

THEIR SHORTS WERE SO TIGHT THAT THEY COULDN'T

PICK THE BALL UP WITHOUT SERIOUS RISK

DAREN'T RUN VERY FAST WITH IT WHEN THEY HAD GOT IT

AND COULDN'T WITH ANY DEGREE OF SAFETY,
TOUCH IT DOWN AGAIN.

IN ORDER TO JUSTIFY THIS SWEEPING CONDEMNATION OF BROMS-
GROVE'S LIKING FOR THE SKIN-TIGHT EFFECT LET ME INSTANCE
THE OPPOSITE CASE OF THE REFEREE IN THIS MATCH — A NIMBLER
AND MORE ACTIVE TOOTLER HAS NEVER BEEN SEEN AT KINGSHOLM

AND YET OBSERVE
THE GENEROUS LOOSENESS
OF HIS SHORTS
AND THE BENEVOLENT
FULLNESS OF HIS JACKET.

THE ONLY DIFFICULTY
HE EXPERIENCED WAS THAT HE HAD TO PUT HIS HEAD
UP HIS SLEEVE
WHENEVER HE WANTED TO BLOW HIS WHISTLE.
