

GLOUCESTER v. LYDNEY.

By "TEEK."

THE WORMS IN THE KINGSHOLM TURF GOT THEIR FIRST SHAKING-UP ON SATURDAY LAST WHEN GLOUCESTER WERE AT HOME TO THE LYDNEY TINPLATERS.

WORM (AS PLASTER BEGINS TO FALL FROM HIS CEILING) "THAT TOMMY VOICE MAN HAS STARTED HIS GAMES AGAIN - NO MORE PEACE FOR THE NEXT EIGHT MONTHS"

IN SPITE OF ITS BEING THE FIRST GAME ON THE GROUND EVERYBODY PLAYED HIS PART WITH A WILL.

ALL THE PLAYERS RAN WELL

FELL DOWN NEATLY

AND GOT UP AGAIN SUCCESSFULLY.

THE BAND (INCLUDING COLLECTING-BOXES) PLAYED THEIR PARTS MANFULLY.

MR STEPHENS, THE REFEREE (FROM THE MUSICAL MIDLANDS) GAVE US A VERY TUNEFUL RENDERING OF A PRETTY LITTLE PIECE OF HIS - WITH MANY ENCORES

FREE-KICK, GLOSTER

AND THE SPECTATORS DID THEIR BEST, THOUGH, OF COURSE, THEY HAD NOT YET PROPERLY ACQUIRED

THAT RICH PURPLE VOICE WHICH IS THE IDEAL OF ALL TRUE FOLLOWERS OF FOOTBALL

THE ONLY EXCITING INCIDENT IN THE GAME WAS WHEN MR STEPHENS HELD UP THE PLAY WHILE HE AND A TOUCH-JUDGE MARVELLED AT THE SKILL SHOWN BY A LYDNEY MAN IN TYING UP HIS BOOTLACE.

BY THE WAY - THOMPSON (WHO WAS ON THE INJURED LIST) HELPED THE SPECTATORS FROM A FORWARD POSITION IN THE GRAND STAND.

TEEK 1926