

END OF THE SEASON.

MEN'S WEAR AT KINGSHOLM.

By "TEEK".

ACCIDENT TO TOURISTS IN GLOUCESTER.
 A PARTY OF TOURISTS FROM NEWCASTLE, ON A HOLIDAY TRIP TO SOUTH WALES, LOST CONTROL OF THEIR CAR IN WORCESTER STREET ON SATURDAY LAST, AND SKIDDED ON TO THE KINGSHOLM FOOTBALL GROUND WHERE THEY RECEIVED INJURIES TO THE EXTENT OF 31 PIS. TO 9.

MEN'S WEAR AT KINGSHOLM. (BY OUR SARTORIAL EXPERT.)

GREATLY ADMIRER BY ALL PRESENT WAS MR KEYS' PERFECT DUCK OF A JUMPER, IN LIGHT GINGER-BROWN, WITH A DELIGHTFUL PATTERN BY EUCLID AND A PLEASING BUT RATHER SUBDUED CIRCUMFERENTIAL STRIPE. IT WAS FREELY REMARKED HOW THE HIGH-WAIST EFFECT OF THIS GARMENT ADDED GRACE TO THE WEARER.

IN THESE DAYS OF HUSTLE, WHEN REFEREES SOME-TIMES TURN OUT OR EVEN THUS THUS IT WAS A REAL PLEASURE TO SEE THE FULL REFER- EES OUTFIT SPORTED BY MR CURTIS WHICH COM- BINED QUIET AND WELL-TAILORED PERFECTION WITH THE PRACTICAL UTILITY WHICH REFEREEING DEMANDS.

I NOTICED ONE OF THE NEW SPECTATING BOWLERS AMONG THE CROWD. THESE ARE INTENDED TO PREVENT THE EARS FLAPPING ABOUT DURING MOMENTS OF EXCITEMENT.

SERVING THE SAME PURPOSE BUT OF DIFFERENT DESIGN WAS THE HEADGEAR IN PALE GREEN LINOLEUM SET OFF WITH SILVER STRIPES WORN BY A NEWCASTLE FORWARD.

GOOD AS IT IS, MILLINER'S CURLY-TOP HAS NOW TO TAKE SECOND PLACE TO HEMMING'S BUSBY.

THE END OF THE FOOTBALL SEASON
 THE FINAL PROCESS.

