GLOUCESTER v. ABERAVON.

By "TEEK."

A GIVE-AND-TAKE SORT OF GAME — ABERAVON STARTING BY GIVING GLOSTER SIX POINTS AND THEN TAKING A FAT THIRTEEN FOR THEMSELVES. YES, THE MEN FROM ABERAVON WERE BUBBLING OVER WITH GENEROSITY DURING THE EARLY PART OF THE PERFORMANCE.

THE FIRST RECIPIENT OF THEIR BOUNTY WAS STEF WENZ.

THEY GAVE HIM A PRETTY BALL TOOK HIS HAND AND WENT WITH HIM TO SHOW HIM THE WAY OVER THEIR LINE.

AFTERWARDS, WHILE STILL UNDER THE INFLUENCE OF STRONG GENEROSITY, THEY MET A JOLLY LITTLE LAD WITH GOLDEN HAIR TO WHOM THEY ALSO GAVE A PRETTY BALL TO TAKE SOME LEMON JUICE FOR IT—which they did.

AT THIS POINT THE REFEREE ADVISED THEM TO TAKE A CHANGE IN THEIR ATTITUDE AND WHICH BROUGHT ABERRY FOR ANOTHER GOOD LITTLE BOY TOWARDS GOOD LITTLE BOYS.

SOMETHING'S HABITUAL HABITS FORD WENT OFF TO A CONVENIENT SPOT BEFORE THEIR POSTS AND LET HIM KICK A GOAL.

PUT IT DOWN BY THE RIVER BEND.

A PROMISING LAD, WHATEVER HE IS NEEDED.

HE IS THE BIRD.
